

BEAR

Animal ID No: A062211

Breed: Male Buff Cairn Terrier Mix 27 lbs

Age: 7 years

About Me: I am not a purebred Terrier but I do possess a lot of the their wonderful traits. I am alert, active and quick to learn. I would love a family that is active and would allow me to be involved in their life. I know I would be fabulous in obedience and agility class because I am so smart. I only want the chance to prove myself to someone.

SNOOPY

Animal ID No: A062402

Breed: Male Tricolor Beagle 21 lbs

Age: 1 year

About Me: I was named after one of the most famous Beagles of all time. I am every bit as endearing and happy-go-lucky as he. My natural instincts make me a bit curious and my nose can get me into trouble. My sweet personality and my desire to please will put a smile on your face. I know I would be an ideal addition for a family with children.

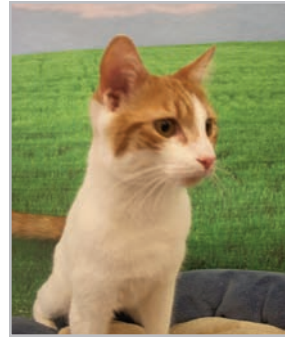

PATCHES

Animal ID No: A062570

Breed: Female Calico Domestic Short Hair 6 lbs

Age: 11 months

About Me: My sister TIJ and I are currently sharing a penthouse suite. It is a nice room with a view but it is a bit cramped for my style. I am a typically pretty easy going gal. I love to play and do all those cute little kitty things but I also enjoy a nice warm person to cuddle up to. I love Tij and I hope we can stay together.

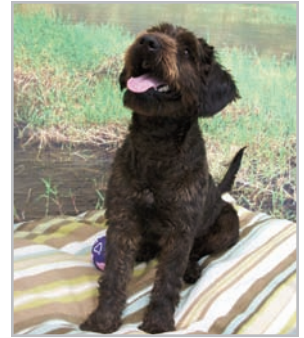

TIJ

Animal ID No: A062571

Breed: Female White Domestic Short Hair 8 lbs

Age: 11 months

About Me: Tij and I were brought to the shelter because our owner lost his job. We understand it but yet we don't. We don't eat much and we require very little other than a little food, water and tender loving care. We are both very sweet cats and we love life. We would love to stay together and we hope our next home is forever.

BAXTER

Animal ID No: A063002

Breed: Male Black Giant Schnauzer Mix 25 lbs

Age: 1 year

About Me: Please do not let the word "Giant" scare you off. I am big at heart but not big in size. I am a high spirited dog, who is full of energy. I would love to put these assets to good use. A game of fetch would be right up my alley. My even temperament makes me a good candidate for a family with kids and other pets. I hope I am what you are looking for.
